Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Atlantic Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- - Any concerns or complaints should be raised with the Exams Officer, Jonquil Verney, either in person at Atlantic Academy or by telephoning or by emailing exams@atlanticacademy.uk
- If the concern or complaint is detailed then a follow-up meeting or email maybe used to clarify the situation and come to a resolution.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Claire Ankers.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- complete and return a complaints/appeal form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the Senior Leadership Team (who is not involved with in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 2 calendar weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- again complete and return a complaints/appeal form.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days.

The appeal will be referred to:

- the Head of Centre and the Chair of Governors for consideration.

It will be the responsibility of to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
